

NH Statewide Assessment State Approved Special Considerations NECAP, NH-Alt, ACCESS for ELLs® School Year 2011-2012

All students, including students with disabilities and limited-English proficient (LEP) students, are expected to take part in the statewide academic assessment program in one of the following ways:

- participate in the general statewide assessment (NECAP) without accommodations;
- participate in the general statewide assessment (NECAP) with accommodations; or
- participate in the NH alternate assessment (NH-ALPs), available only for students with an Individualized Education Program (IEP) who meet specific criteria.

In addition, students identified as limited English proficient must also participate in the ACCESS for ELLs® (English Language Proficiency test).

State assessment policies place a great deal of responsibility on districts to include all students. Districts must juggle state requirements, student needs, and parents' wishes. Despite a district's best efforts, situations will arise that prohibit the inclusion of every student. Extended absence, family vacations, significant medical and emotional issues, and parent refusals are but a few of the issues that are not entirely within the district's control. Students who do not participate are reported in two different ways on assessment reports: did not participate for state approved reasons and did not participate for other reasons. The distinction is particularly important in reading and mathematics accountability reporting since the second case negatively affects reported participation rates, while the first does not.

The state approved reasons, called State Approved Special Considerations (SASC), fall within six broad areas: Medical Emergency/Serious Illness, Severe Emotional Distress, Death in the Family, Student who qualifies for the NH-ALPs but enroll after the start of NH-ALPs testing, Students who participate in another state's assessment system, and Exemption from ACCESS for ELLs® for NH-ALPs students. In all cases, the exemptions must be approved by the Director of Assessment at the NH Department of Education and are acknowledged with an email receipt to the school principal and district superintendent.

SASC Procedure

SASC requests are made for each test administration separately (Fall NECAP, winter ACCESS for ELLs®, spring NH-ALPs, and Spring NECAP). Three of the six SASCs (SASC-1, SASC-2, and SASC-3) are based on significant medical or emotional disruptions to the student's life. In these three cases, the request is based on a decision made by an educational team that includes the student's teachers, school counselor, principal, parents or legal guardian, medical or mental health professional, and, if possible, the student. The other three SASCs (SASC-4, SASC-5, and SASC-6) are administrative in nature and thus the request may be made by district personnel.

➤ Who does what?

- The Educational Team gathers information, consults with appropriate people, documents the team discussion and offers a final recommendation in writing regarding whether to request a SASC. Documentation must include the basis for this recommendation.
- The Educational Team sends the documented recommendation to the district Superintendent for final review and action.
- The District Superintendent reviews the team recommendation, makes a final decision based on the documented information, then completes, signs, and forwards the appropriate District Assurances together with the student information form to the Director of Statewide Assessment at the NH Department of Education.
- The Director of Statewide Assessment reviews the submitted District Assurances Form, and if needed, contacts the principal or the office of the Superintendent for clarification or other action. The Department issues a written receipt with decision to the district Superintendent (copied to the principal) for each request for a SASC.

Note: The decision to test or not test a student should not depend on the outcome of the request to the NH-DoE. If a student can be assessed, he or she should be assessed. The result of an approved exemption is applied to assessment and accountability reporting.

SASC-1: Medical Emergency or Serious Illness

Students with very serious, chronic, and fragile medical conditions can and do participate successfully in statewide assessment. However, there are rare and unique situations in which a student is unable to participate in any part of statewide assessment. Such decisions must be made with the greatest care and restraint. Every student has the right to participate in statewide assessment in order to show what he or she knows and is able to do as compared to state curriculum standards.

Rule of Thumb

- If the student can receive instruction, the student can participate in statewide assessment.

Medical Emergency In rare instances, a student may be unable to complete or participate in any part of the assessment due to a documented significant and fully incapacitating medical emergency. Examples of significant medical emergency include: a serious car accident, hospitalization, or placement in hospice care. Medical emergencies of this kind must be identified and verified in writing by a licensed physician and kept on file by the local district. (Students with broken arms can usually participate with accommodations.)

- Special education law requires that each student who receives special education services must have a written IEP which documents how this student will participate in statewide assessment. If a student's special education team seeks a medical exemption, this team decision must also be documented in the IEP.

Conditions that do not qualify for exemption:

- Medical Fragility – All medically fragile students are expected to participate in statewide assessment unless a significant and documented medical emergency exists in addition to medical fragility.
- District provided home-based educational programs (student remains enrolled in district)
- Pregnancy
- Students with acute, short term minor illnesses or injuries

Who can sign the Treating Physician Form?

The Treating Physician Form may be signed by a licensed medical professional who is not under contract with the district nor related to the student. The licensed medical professional should have the qualifications necessary to render an informed judgment about how the child's medical condition affects schooling.

Note 1: Make up testing - Content area tests (NECAP or NH-ALPs) or domain area tests (ACCESS for ELLs®) that cannot be made up may qualify for medical exemption, but in most cases, missed test sessions can be made up. For example, sometimes a medical exemption might be granted for mathematics but not for reading. Typical brief acute illness is not cause for such an exemption.

Note 2: Length of Test Window and Medical Exemption: NECAP and ACCESS for ELLs® versus NH-ALPs. When considering medical exemption requests, it's important to consider the differences in the lengths of the test windows: NECAP (about 3 weeks) and ACCESS for ELLs® (about 6 weeks) versus NH-ALPs (half a year). Many students who participate in NH-ALPs have chronic or episodic illnesses and are available for instruction (and assessment) only during parts of the testing window. The NH-ALPs portfolio process is built to accommodate most of these situations. In general, try to apply the rule of thumb noted above – if the student has been receiving instruction, the student should be assessed. For the NH-ALPs, the entire test window from October 1 to May 5 should be considered. Requests for exemptions should be consistent with the description of Medical Emergency offered above. Final decisions regarding medical exemptions for students taking the NH-ALPs should be finalized by May 5. Please contact the Department if it is necessary to exempt a student from part of the NH-ALPs test due to a medical emergency.

Note 3: Missed test windows - Students who qualify for the NH-ALPs, but entered NH public education after March 1 but before the following fall NECAP test may qualify for an exemption. For more information, please see SASC-4 of this document.

SASC-2: Severe Emotional Distress

Students with very serious, chronic, and fragile medical conditions can and do participate successfully in statewide assessment. However, there are rare and unique situations in which a student is unable to participate in any part of statewide assessment. Such decisions must be made with the greatest care and restraint. Every student has the right to participate in statewide assessment in order to show what he or she knows and is able to do as compared to state curriculum standards.

Rule of Thumb

- If the student can receive instruction, the student can participate in statewide assessment.

Severe Emotional Distress In rare instances, a student may be unable to complete or participate in any part of the assessment due to documented significant and fully incapacitating emotional trauma that extends across the entire remaining test window. Severe Emotional Distress qualifies if it prevents the student from participating in instruction offered either at school or at home. Sometime, the distress requires a student to be hospitalized in a mental health facility. Severe Emotional Distress of this kind must be identified and verified in writing by a licensed mental health worker and kept on file by the local district.

- Special education law requires that each student who receives special education services must have a written IEP which documents how this student will participate in statewide assessment. If a student's special education team seeks a severe emotional distress exemption, this team decision must also be documented in the IEP.

Conditions that do not qualify for exemption:

- Mental health conditions that permit students to receive instruction
- Students placed in county jails or juvenile correctional facilities
- Student or Parent Refusal
- Pregnancy

Who can sign the Treating Licensed Mental Health Worker Form?

The Treating Licensed Mental Health Worker Form may be signed by a licensed mental health worker who is not under contract with the district nor related to the student. The licensed mental health worker should have the qualifications necessary to render an informed judgment about how the child's mental health condition affects schooling.

Note 1: *Make up testing - Content area tests (NECAP or NH-ALPs) or domain area tests (ACCESS for ELLs[®]) that cannot be made up may qualify for severe emotional distress exemption, but in most cases, missed test sessions can be made up. SASC-3: Death in the Family

Each year, some students suffer the loss of a close family member. This is a most difficult time for the student, the student's family, and the student's educational family. Each child responds in a different way and schools should address the student's emotional needs before worrying about participation requirements in statewide assessment. Unlike SASC-1 and SASC-2, the student is probably capable of taking part in statewide assessment, but it may not be appropriate to do so. For some students, exclusion from statewide assessment will be part of what is needed for the school to respond to students' needs. For others, the school will help the student participate in all regularly scheduled school activities – including statewide assessment. School counselors, together with the students' teachers and parents should make the decision carefully. This is one of the times that it will be appropriate to factor the student's wishes into the decision.

All requests for SASC-3 should be made at the end of a test window. Schools may wish to notify the Director of State Assessment by email that they have a student for whom a SASC-3 may be requested. As the testing window comes to an end and the school no longer has enough time to test the student, a formal request may be submitted.

When are Forms for SASC-3 due to the NH Department of Education?

- NECAP: Reading, Math and/or Writing
Must be submitted October 1 – 25, 2011 for the Oct. 2011 Fall NECAP test

SASC-4: Enrolling after Start of NH-ALPs Testing

The test window for the spring 2012 NH-ALPs is October 1 - May 5, 2012. Districts are expected to work on a portfolio for every NH-ALPs qualifying student that is enrolled anytime during October 1 up to and including March 1. Every NH-ALPs qualifying student enrolled in a NH district on March 1, 2012 must be registered. If a qualifying student subsequently withdraws, the district is expected to submit the content areas that were fully completed to that point. Furthermore, if not all content areas are completed, and thus not submitted, the district should notify the Department by completing the scannable document you will receive in the return materials packet for NH-ALPs for your registered student – the Department will code the missing content areas as W (withdrew from school).

But, this SASC is about students who enroll in a district after a March 1 of the NH-ALPs test window.

Under state assessment and accountability rules, how do we report the status of students who qualify for NH-ALPs but were not enrolled in any NH public district at the beginning of the test window? The arrival of a qualifying student in NH public education after March 1, 2011 for school year 2010-2011, or after March 1, 2012 for school year 2011-2012 creates a timing problem under reporting rules. New Hampshire does not require entering students who qualify for NH-ALPs to participate in the corresponding regular assessment simply because they missed the NH-ALPs testing window. The two cases below cover two different time periods during the school year.

Case 1: Enrolled between March 1, 2011 and October 1, 2011 (seeking exemption from Fall 2011 NECAP)

A NH-ALPs qualifying student who enrolled in your district after March 1, 2011 and is enrolled on October 1, 2011 in your district, and but did not fully complete a NH-ALPs assessment last year.

- If the student is entered with an IEP for the 2010-2011 school year, and if the student's IEP specified that the student would participate in alternate state assessment for school year 2010-2011, then the student may be exempt from 2011 Fall NECAP testing. OR
- If the student is entering from outside the NH public district system without an IEP for school year 2010-2011, and if the student's current IEP team determines that the student would have qualified for the 2010-2011 NH-ALPs had the student been enrolled in a NH public district prior to March 2, 2011, and if the student currently qualifies for the school year 2011-2012 NH-ALPs, then the student may be exempt from Fall 2011 NECAP testing. Note: participation in the school year 2011-2012 NH-ALPs will exempt the student from the Spring 2012 NECAP science test and the Fall 2012 NECAP test.

Case 2: Enrolls after March 1, 2012 (seeking exemption from school year 2011-2012 NH-ALPs, spring 2012 NECAP Science, and Fall 2012 NECAP)

A NH-ALPs qualifying student enrolls in NH district after March 1, 2012.

- If the student's IEP team determines that the student would have qualified for the school year 2011-2012 NH-ALPs had the student been enrolled in the district on March 1, 2012, then the student may be exempt from statewide assessments based on the 2011-2012 school year. If the district request is approved, the student is exempt from statewide assessments based on the 2011-2012 year of instruction. Note, however, the student must participate in statewide assessments that will be based on the 2012-2013 year of instruction.

(Must be submitted with Request)

It is the responsibility of the district Superintendent to review in a timely manner all requests for State Approved Special Consideration that would permit any student to be exempted from statewide assessment for reasons of enrolling after the NH-ALPs test window closes. The criteria below include the minimum conditions that must be addressed in order to grant a student a special consideration exemption from statewide assessment. Upon receipt of a request for such exemption, the Superintendent must determine if the following conditions have been met:

Respond to Case 1 or Case 2 as appropriate.

	Assurances by District:	True	False	If false, then add comment(s):
Case 1: Requesting exemption from statewide assessment based on 2010-2011 year of instruction.	Student was not enrolled in this district on March 1, 2011
	Student is enrolled in this NH District on October 1, 2011.
	The student meets one of the following criteria: A. The student entered with an IEP for the 2010-2011 school year, and the student's IEP specified that the student would participate in alternate state assessment for school year 2010-2011. OR B. The student entered from outside the NH public district system without an IEP for school year 2010-2011, and the student's current IEP team determines that the student would have qualified for the 2010-2011 NH-ALPs had the student been enrolled in a NH public district prior to March 2, 2011, and the student currently qualifies for the school year 2011-2012 NH-ALPs.
Case 2 Requesting exemption from statewide assessment based on 2011-2012 year of instruction.	Student enrolled in this district after March 1, 2012 and on or before October 1, 2012.
	the student's IEP team determines that the student would have qualified for the school year 2011-2012 NH-ALPs had the student been enrolled in the district on March 1, 2012

SASC-5 Student Participating in another State's Assessment System (Other than NECAP)

Students are sometimes placed by their public district in a state other than VT, RI, or ME. NH requires that these students participate in statewide assessment, but does not require that it be NH statewide assessment. In the past, we have had students participate in the MCAS and the MCAS-Alternate Assessment at both public and non-public schools in Massachusetts. While we do not have the ability to include MCAS scores in NH assessment and accountability reporting, we can grant the sending district a SASC to ensure that student's non-participation in NH statewide assessment does not negatively impact district accountability reporting. If a district verifies that the student is participating in a state's assessment system other than NECAP, the district may request an exemption.

NECAP eligible NH public school students attending school in Vermont, Maine, or Rhode Island participate in the NECAP. In general, sending districts arrange NECAP and NH-ALPs testing for students they've place in private or non-public programs anywhere in the country. Receiving public high schools in VT, RI, and ME arrange for NECAP testing for students attending their school. These students are not exempt from testing.

Please contact Tim Kurtz at the NH Department of Education to discuss any of these cases should they arise.

SASC-6 Exemptions from ACCESS for ELLs[®] based on NH-ALPs participation

English Language Learners (ELLs), like other populations of students, are eligible for special education services in addition to their English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) services. The two are not mutually exclusive. Some students should be receiving both ESOL and special education services. Being an ELL student does not exempt the student from statewide assessments. Likewise, being a student who qualifies for special education services does not exempt the student from ACCESS for ELLs[®] testing. However, a small number of ELLs have cognitive disabilities so significant that the student is eligible for the NH-ALPs assessment. The ACCESS for ELLs[®] assessment is not designed to respond to the needs of the students participating in the NH-Alt. For this reason, ELLs who are being assessed with the NH-ALPs assessment are eligible for exemption from the ACCESS for ELLs[®] testing.

ACCESS for ELLs is administered annually to all LEP students in public schools during grades K through 12. NH-ALPs assessment is not administered during grades K, 1, 9, or 12. This problem is addressed by the following participation rules:

Grades K -1: To be eligible for exemption (SASC-6) from ACCESS for ELLs during grade K or 1 the team must determine that the student is both currently eligible for special education services and currently demonstrates such a severe and documented cognitive disability that he or she can be reasonably expected to qualify for NH-ALPs during grade 2 (the first year of NH-ALPs).

Grade 9: To be eligible for exemption from ACCESS for ELLs at this grade the student must have qualified, or data shows the student would have qualified for participation in NH-ALPs Assessment during the grade 8 school year. There must be a grade 8 IEP in existence that documents that the student did, in fact, meet the qualifying criteria for participation in N H-ALPS in that year.

Grade 12: To be eligible for exemption from ACCESS for ELLs at this grade the student must have qualified, or data shows the student would have qualified for participation in NH-ALPs during the grade 11 school year. There must be a grade 11 IEP in existence that documents that the student did, in fact, meet the qualifying criteria for participation in NH-ALPs in that year.
